*In-class members are scheduled in their work for the February test date.

**All materials sent by mail must be RECEIVED by the last date of the late period, regardless of when they are postmarked.

If you miss the late registration for a test date, you can still try to test Saturday.

What you need to know to take the ACT® test

Create your ACT account

Go to www.actstudent.org and sign up or log in to your ACT account

- Select your test date and test option (ACT or ACT with writing)
- Check the list of colleges that require or recommend the optional ACT writing test
- Select your test center
- Upload your photo
- Request accommodations—check the ACT website before you register

Choose your college reports

- Send up to four score reports to free when you register. (More additional score reports can be ordered later.)
- ACT scores are accepted by all four-year U.S. colleges and universities.

Change your registration

- Use your account to change test date, test option, or test center and to send more score reports to colleges.

Take advantage of helpful resources

- The ACT tests are based on what you learn in high school
- Give yourself a boost with free and low-cost test prep options at www.actstudent.org

Prepare for test day

- Review the ACT calculator policy for make sure your calculator is approved
- Check the website for what you need to bring to the test center

TEST FEES*

ACT $42.50

ACT with writing $58.50

*If you cannot afford the test fee, ask your counselor about requesting a fee waiver.

Receive your scores

- Get your scores through your ACT account. Scores are normally reported 2–8 weeks after you test (5–8 weeks for ACT with writing).
- Your scores may not come in time for you to decide if you want to register for the next test date.

Understand your complete score report

- You are "more than just a score" and your ACT score report confirms that. The report has information about your needs, interests, and possible career options that you can share with colleges.

Join the more than three million students who take the ACT every year—the leading college admissions test in the United States.
