

SMU

BIG D DELIVERS

Dallas is a vibrant metropolitan center for business and commerce, arts and culture, innovation and enterprise. SMU's location in one of the world's most dynamic cities offers students life-changing experiences.

#1

Dallas is America's most business-friendly city, according to MarketWatch 2015.

#1

in the nation for largest urban arts district

#5

on the Forbes 2016 list of the 15 best big cities for jobs

#3

on the Forbes 2016 list of the 20 fastest-growing cities in the country

#1

The Dallas region is home to the two best cities in the country (Irving is No. 1, Grand Prairie is No. 2) for starting a career, according to Forbes 2015.

200+

companies from 34 countries have their U.S. headquarters or substantial operations in the Dallas region

TOP 10%

Dallas is in the top 10% of the Forbes 2015 list of the best places for business and careers, beating San Francisco, Austin and Houston.

SMU is a nationally ranked private university located near the heart of Dallas. Offering real-world preparation for career success, SMU's rigorous academic programs in business, engineering, humanities, sciences, communications, performing and visual arts and education and human development reward students' hard work with unparalleled opportunities.

- 11:1 student-to-faculty ratio; average class size is 24
- About 200 student organizations offer a variety of ways to nurture your interests and help develop leadership skills.
- SMU-in-Taos, our campus in northern New Mexico, offers credit courses in the arts, sciences and business.
- SMU is the only private university with a presidential library on its main campus.
- SMU has a "high research activity" Carnegie classification.
- SMU is the highest-ranking university in North Texas, fourth-highest in the state and among the top universities nationwide, according to Forbes 2016.
- At the Locomotor Performance Laboratory in Simmons School of Education and Human Development, students engaging in a high-tech investigation of biomechanics develop skills and proficiencies most sought by employers and graduate programs.
- One of the top academic supercomputers in the nation, SMU's ManeFrame powerfully expands the reach of faculty and student research.
- Dedman College of Humanities and Sciences offers interdisciplinary majors, including biochemistry, human rights, public policy and environmental studies.
- Meadows School of the Arts' endowed Temerlin Advertising Institute has been named one of 10 leaders in advertising education by The New York Times.
- At the Kitt Investing and Trading Center, Cox School of Business students invest a portfolio valued at $3 million.
- The Darwin Deason Institute for Cyber Security in Lyle School of Engineering takes an interdisciplinary approach to solving some of the nation's most challenging cyber security problems. In the Deason Innovation Gym, students refine their engineering skills by working on real-world design challenges.

#6 among the top 25 U.S. schools for internship opportunities in The Princeton Review 2016

74% of 2015 grads employed before graduation or pursuing a graduate degree

93% of May 2015 Cox graduates were off the job market within three months of graduation at a starting salary of over $60K per year

80% of Lyle engineering students graduate with professional experience from internships

TOP 1% SMU ranks among the top 1% of highest-paid music graduates, according to College Factual 2016

#1 First university in the south, and fifth in the nation, to offer a human rights undergraduate major

$109 million+ in SMU scholarships and grants awarded last year

3 out of 4 students receive scholarships and/or financial aid

100+ MAJORS complemented by more than 85 minors

TOP 15% The Center for World University Rankings places SMU among the top 15% of 1,000 universities ranked worldwide

Questions?

ugadmission@smu.edu
214-768-2058 | 1-800-323-0672
smu.edu/admission

SMU will not discriminate in any program or activity on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, age, disability, genetic information, veteran status, sexual orientation or gender identity and expression. The Executive Director for Access and Equity/Title IX Coordinator is designated to handle inquiries regarding nondiscrimination policies and may be reached at the Perkins Administration Building, Room 204, 6425 Boaz Lane, Dallas, TX 75205, 214-768-3601, accessandequity@smu.edu, 170008.814

RESIDENTIAL COMMONS: AN UNCOMMON EXPERIENCE

SMU's Residential Commons bridges academic and social life to support a vibrant University community. Creating an extension of the learning continuum, Faculty in Residence expand students' opportunities for informal interactions, intellectual exchanges and mentoring. This transformative residential experience enables students to transition more smoothly to campus life, benefit from new leadership opportunities and nurture lifelong friendships. smu.edu/residentialcommons

ADMITTED MIDDLE 50% OF THE SMU CLASS OF 2020

GPA 3.41-3.91
Unweighted 4.0 scale

SAT 1340-1460
New SAT scale*

SAT 1280-1410
Old SAT 1600 point scale

ACT 29-32
36 point scale

Estimated scores based on revised SAT conversions*

THE BIG PICTURE

FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS

- 38% Students from Texas
- 55% Students out of state
- 7% International

UNDERGRADUATES

- 11% Hispanic
- 5% Black or African American
- 7% Asian
- 4% Multiracial
- <1% American Indian/Alaska Native
- <1% Native Hawaiian/Other Pacific Islander
- 65% White, non-Hispanic (8% International and other)

FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS

14,771 Applications
13,237 Completed applications
6,482 Admitted students
1,521 Enrolled students

UNDERGRADUATES

6,384 Enrolled students
53 States and territories represented (including Texas)
67 Countries represented (excluding U.S.A.)

GEOGRAPHIC DIVERSITY

FIRST-YEAR STUDENTS

- 42% Southwest
- 17% West
- 17% South
- 8% Midwest
- 9% Northeast
- 7% International